1 Preamble

This Code of Conduct (the “Code”) has been adopted by Credo Brands Marketing Limited (“the Company”) for its Directors and Senior Management employee (as defined below) of the Company under Regulation 17(5)(a) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended (“SEBI LODR Regulations”)

This Code is expected to help maintain high standards of business conduct for the Company (as defined below) and to promote ethical conduct. This Code is derived from three interlinked fundamental principles, viz. good corporate governance, good corporate citizenship and exemplary personal conduct.

Directors and Senior Management must act within the bounds of the authority conferred upon them and with a duty to make and enact informed decisions and policies in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders / stakeholders. Directors and Senior Management should ensure that they do not derive any undue personal benefit because of their position in the Company and / or exposure to certain confidential information coming to their knowledge.

With a view to maintain the high standards that the Company requires, the following Code should be observed by Directors and Senior Management while carrying out business of the Company.

2 Definition

“Board” shall mean the Board of Directors of Credo Brands Marketing Limited.

“Senior Management” employees shall have the same meaning assigned to it under the SEBI LODR Regulations. Normally, this would comprise the officers and personnel of the Company who are members of its core management team, excluding the Board of Directors, and shall also comprise all the members of the management one level below the Chief Executive Officer or Managing Director or Whole Time Director or Manager (including Chief Executive Officer or Manager, in case they are not part of the Board of Directors) and shall specifically include the functional heads, by whatever name called and the persons identified and designated as key managerial personnel, other than the board of directors, by the Company..

3 Policy

3.1 Honesty & Integrity

Directors and Senior Management shall act on behalf of the Company and on their personal behalf, with honesty, integrity and fairness. Directors and Senior Management shall act in good faith, responsibility, with due care, skill, competence and diligence, without allowing their independent judgment to be subordinated. Directors shall fulfill the fiduciary obligations and act in the best interests of the Company, its stakeholders and for the protection of environment.

3.2 Conflict of Interest

Directors and Senior Management shall not engage in any business, relationship or activity, which may be in conflict with interests of the Company. A conflict of interest occurs when personal interest of a Directors and Senior Management conflicts in any way, or even appears to conflict, with the interest of the Company as a whole. A conflict of interest also arises when a Director or Senior Management employee or a member of his or her immediate family is likely to receive undue personal benefit as a result of his or her position as a Director or member of Senior Management of the Company.

In case of any transaction(s) which prima facie appears to be conflicting with the interest of the Company but are unavoidable, the Director or Employee involved in such transaction shall obtain prior approval from the Managing Director before such transaction is entered into. The Managing Director would consider the application on the basis of the size and nature of transaction, the Director's or Employee's ability to influence the Company's decisions, his or her access to confidential information of the Company or of the other company and the nature of relationship between the Company and the other party.

In case the Chairman of the Board is interested, the matter should be referred to the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Company.

3.3 Corporate Opportunities

Directors and Senior Management shall not exploit for their own personal gain, opportunities that are discovered through the use of Company's property, information or position, unless the opportunity is disclosed fully in writing to the Managing Director and the Managing Director approves to pursue such opportunity.

Directors and Senior Management must make disclosures to the Board relating to all material financial and commercial transactions, where they have personal interest that may have a potential conflict with the interest of the Company at large (for example dealing in Company's shares, commercial dealings with bodies, which have shareholding of management and their relatives etc.)

3.4 Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations

Directors and Senior Management shall comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, in all areas and geographies where the Company operates, both in letter and spirit. The Company cannot accept practices which are unlawful or may be damaging Company's reputation. In order to assist the Company in promoting lawful and ethical behaviour, Directors and Senior Management must report any possible violation of law, rules, regulation or the Code to the Compliance officer. In the event, the implication of any law is not clear; the managing Director /CFO/ Compliance Officer shall be consulted for advice.

3.5 Other Directorships

Directors must report / disclose their directorships in other companies to the Board on an annual basis. Every director shall also inform the Company about the committee positions he or she occupies in any public and/or listed companies. If there is any change in directorships and/or committee positions in other companies during the course of the year, Directors must promptly notify the same to the Board which will be noted by the Board at the next meeting.

Employees must obtain the approval of Managing Director before accepting a directorship in any other company. Senior Management shall not accept the directorship / advisor or hold any other capacity of a direct competitor of the Company or of any firm which is working in same field.

An employee shall act as the director / advisor or hold any other capacity in any other company only after seeking prior written approval from the Managing Director and after making proper disclosure to the Compliance Officer.

3.6 Dealing with the Internal Customers
